CONSIGNMENT INFO

Rhubarb + Custard

Here's the lowdown: Bring us your best maternity, boys' and girls' clothing up to size 16/18. Shoes, too. We no longer consign most gear, plastic toys, books, etc. No socks, bibs, blankets, diapers, underpants, etc. Buttons buttoned. Double check that there aren't any month old chocolate milk stains on them, and bring us items that are clean, seasonal, and in great condition. Ask yourself, "Would I buy it in this condition?" Neatly fold in one Rubbermaid style bins or no more than two Trader Joes bags marked clearly with your name and phone number! Absolutely no trash bags. You earn 40% of what we sell it for. You just check in from time to time with a phone call. We consign the clothing for at least 120 days once entered into our system. We donate to several great charities. Buckhead Christian Ministries, The Assistance League and Threads, which is part of All Saints United Methodist Church. You can simply drop things off, we'll sort through, inventory any consignable items and donate the rest. And provide a receipt upon request so you know where you are making a difference. Easy Peasy.

04 We consign for at least 120 days, and pay you 40% off the selling price. Everybody's Happy!

03 Bring your clothing in a plastic tub, or Trader Joe's bag. No trash bags. No exceptions.

02 Bring us your cutest, and cleanest clothes that are in season and in style. Nothing too old, please.

01 We accept maternity and infant to Size 16/18. Clothing and shoes only.

brands we might have missed. We love them, our customers love them and they are always in demand! Please make sure they are less than five years old. Any questions? Give us a call at 404.474.9860

Unless New With Tags, we will probably not accept any of the lower price point brands ie Garanimals, Circo, Cherokee, George, Carters, OshKosh, Just One Year, older Gymboree, etc. etc. as there is just no value and the big box folks discount it too much to begin with. We do not consign gear, toys, books, bibs, socks, underwear, bottles, diapers, etc. etc. etc.

If you drop off items for us to review later, please understand that we will donate anything we can't use.

Thanks for consigning with us! We really appreciate! If we decide not to accept something, it's not you, it's us. We have a pretty good idea of what sells and what doesn't, and our goal is to sell, sell, sell! Please take a second to read our guidelines below, then sign and date at the bottom! Tell your friends about us, too! The more the merrier! OK, now to the tiny print!

1. I, the undersigned, am the sole owner of all goods placed for consignment and that I didn't swipe them from my best friends closet or off my neighbors front porch.

2. The consignment period will be for 120 days. Rhubarb & Custard will value and tag all items and base our pricing on current retail/online environments, and will discount items as necessary, to keep our inventory fresh. Your consignment period starts when we enter items into the system which may take a week or two. We will then email you your inventory list.

3. Rhubarb & Custard will pay consignors 40% of the selling price for any items sold. Rhubarb and Custard cannot guarantee the sale of any one item but we will do our best. You are welcome to call, email, message, or come in to check your balance at anytime during your consignment period. You will need to check in with us from time to time to keep track of the consignment items. To have your items returned, they must be picked up on or before the last day of your consignment period. We will pull them for you only with advance notice. Also consider simply letting us donate them for you. It makes your life easier. We will provide a receipt, upon request, so you know where you are making a difference. We work with three great charities. Buckhead Christian Ministries, The Assistance League and Threads, which is part of All Saints United Methodist Church.

4. Items dropped off for consignment, that are later deemed unacceptable for any reason, will be automatically donated.

5. We pay by check, store credit, Venmo, PayPal and cash. We recommend you wait at least 30-45 days after you drop off your items to give them a chance to sell. Payment are not automatically generated and will be processed upon request following the end of the 120-day. Store credit accrues as your things begin to sell. Any monies earned that are not collected within 6 months of the end of the consignment period automatically convert to store credit, and expire after 366 days.

6. Unsold items not picked up once the consignment period has ended will become sole property of Rhubarb & Custard and may be donated.

7. I agree not to hold Rhubarb & Custard responsible for lost or damaged items due to any reason, including theft, fire, water, vandalism, building collapse, implosion, damage by the evening gremlins, buckhead drunks, etc. All items are left at consignors risk.

I hereby agree to all the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Please check one of the following boxes.

Please donate my items after my consignment period has ended to Buckhead Christian Ministries.

I will call, and pick up, my items before the end of my consignment period.
